

Bureau of Land Management
California Desert Advisory Council Field Trip
Friday, December 14, 2018

- 10:00 a.m. Meet at Ridgecrest Field Office
Address: 300 S Richmond Rd, Ridgecrest, CA
Present overview of West Mojave Travel Management Plan issues in the Ridgecrest resource area
- 10:30 a.m. Depart for Rademacher Hills
Location is off Jarvis Ave, Ridgecrest
- 10:45 a.m. Arrive Rademacher Hills
Discuss travel management effect on urban interface
- 11:15 a.m. Depart for Kelly Mine at Red Mountain
- 11:45 a.m. Arrive Kelly mine
Discuss hazmat cleanup efforts related to mining activities
- 12:15 p.m. Depart for historic mining town of Randsburg/lunch
- 12:30 p.m. Arrive Randsburg/lunch (ordered off of menu)
Discuss travel management route network connectivity challenges in the Randsburg area.
- 1:30 p.m. Depart for the El Paso Mountains
- 1:45 p.m. Arrive El Paso Mountains
Discuss route access challenges throughout the El Paso Mountains
- 2:15 p.m. Partnership Management with State Parks
Discuss state park land acquisition management adjacent to BLM lands
- 2:30 p.m. Depart for Regional Wild Horse & Burro Corrals/Salt Wells Station
Location: Randsburg-Wash Road, Ridgecrest, CA
- 3:15 p.m. Arrive Wild Horse & Burro corrals/Salt Wells Station corrals
Operational overview / adoption process
- 4:30 p.m. Arrive Ridgecrest Field Office